He giveth power to the faint; and to them that have no might he increaseth strength. Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall: But they that wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint. Isaiah 40:29–31

Nathan & Renee Owens: Pray for salvation for their neighbor Alex. Pray for wisdom and safety for the staff at CRL.

James & Susie Yuen: Pray for wisdom as they consider reopening for face-to-face church services in June. Pray that they will have opportunities to share the gospel.

Arnulfo & Carrie Mendoza: Pray that the college students will take advantage of opportunities to minister during the summer months. Their son Jesse will be home for the summer since his plans to travel with the ministry team had to be cancelled. Pray for him as he adjusts his plans and transitions to being back home. Pray for wisdom for the Mendozas as they prepare Zoom classes for the children in their churches.

Quote of the Week

“There are no measures which can set forth the immeasurable greatness of Jehovah, who is goodness itself. ... Notes of exclamation suit us when words of explanation are of no avail. If we cannot measure we can marvel; and though we may not calculate with accuracy, we can adore with fervency.” ~ C.H. Spurgeon

Scripture of the Week

O magnify the LORD with me, and let us exalt his name together. I sought the LORD, and he heard me, and delivered me from all my fears. Psalms 34:3–4
