Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life. Put away from thee a froward mouth, and perverse lips put far from thee. Let thine eyes look right on, and let thine eyelids look straight before thee. Ponder the path of thy feet, and let all thy ways be established. Turn not to the right hand nor to the left: remove thy foot from evil.

Proverbs 4:23–27

Quote of the Week

“There is much Spirit-filled human effort involved in sanctification. On the one hand, ‘it is God who is at work in you, both to will and to work for His good pleasure’ (Phil. 2:13). On the other hand, we’re commanded in 1 Tim. 4:7, ‘discipline (ourselves) for the purposes of godliness.’ God uses means of grace to sanctify us, chief of which are the personal and corporate spiritual disciplines. In the personal realm, these include intake of God's Word, prayer, private worship, fasting, silence and solitude, etc. These are balanced by disciplines we practice with the church: public worship, hearing God's Word preached, observance of the ordinances, corporate prayer, fellowship, etc.” ~ Donald Whitney

Scripture of the Week

As for God, his way is perfect: the word of the LORD is tried: he is a buckler to all those that trust in him. Psalms 18:30
